

SERVICE

Holocaust Day Remembrance

REMEMBERING: Uzair Atcha, aged 10, of Ladywood School lights a candle at last year's service

■ Vicar of Bolton to lead special community ceremony at university

By Saiqa Chaudhari
saiqa.chaudhari@nqnw.co.uk

schools, civic, faith and community leaders.

The Vicar of Bolton, Canon Matt Thompson, will lead the ceremony and there will be readings by the Mayor of Bolton, Cliff Morris, Rabi Lever, schoolchildren and members of the community.

A number of schools have been working on an art project for the service which will be displayed alongside artwork submitted by Bolton at Home's all the suffering and the loss of home, identity and loved ones, people have still gone on a made a good life for themselves and contributed to the goodness of community.

"It is very important to learn from the disastrous impact of the Holocaust and other atrocities upon the innocent victims.

"Sadly, the ongoing events in Middle East and other parts of the world remind us of the evil and hatred which exists in our

THE victims of the Holocaust will be remembered at a special ceremony at the University of Bolton.